Welcome to Brigham Young University

Brigham Young University seeks to develop students of faith, intellect, and character who have the skills and the desire to continue learning and serve others throughout their lives. Here students obtain an intensive education in an environment of faith, producing high standards of life on all fronts.

BYU Career Services Mission Statement

We seek to empower individuals to achieve their career goals; to optimize recruiting by connecting students, employers, alumni, and academic disciplines; and to promote career initiatives at BYU and with the greater BYU professional network.

BYU Experiential Learning & Internships Mission Statement

We elevate the quality of experiential learning by developing inspired learners and mentors to go forward into a lifetime of learning and service.

Why The Y?
On Handshake, employers can:

• Post an internship or job opportunity.
• Host an information session or virtual event.
• Schedule interviews.
• Sign-up for career fairs.
• Contact students and alumni.

Sign up at Handshake.byu.edu

For help with Handshake, please see our guidebook or contact our Client Experience Team.

Job/Internship Posting Requirements

All positions and employers are subject to approval by Career Services, and must meet the following guidelines:

a. Clearly state in writing the level of compensation. (Internships must clearly state paid or unpaid. See: requirements for unpaid internships)

b. Not engaged in business primarily in the sale, production or distribution of beer, alcohol, coffee, or tobacco

c. Not deal primarily with gaming (gambling), pornography, and similar activities

d. Not advertise services and/or products in a manner inconsistent with the BYU Honor Code

e. Not require fees or start-up costs of applicant; all such fees shall be paid by employer

f. Door-to-Door, seasonal sales positions will not be accommodated.

g. Positions that would employ students for a private individual (e.g. babysitter, private tutor, caretaker, home care, labor, etc.) will not be accommodated.

Discrimination Policy

BYU seeks to comply with all non-discrimination requirements, including:

A. Making reasonable accommodations for a disabled person.
B. Avoiding the use of inquiries that are considered unacceptable by EEO standards during the recruiting process.
C. Refusing to screen candidates based upon the race, color, religion, age, race, gender, sexual orientation, etc.
What is Experiential Learning?

Experiential Learning at BYU aims to develop disciplinary skills, practice professional competencies, inspire greater learning, and imbue habits of lifelong learning in our students. These are most successfully achieved through a process of intention, integration, and reflection. In other words, learning is greater when students are:

A. Set expectations for their own learning as part of an experience;
B. Given opportunities to integrate their existing knowledge and intentions into the experience;
C. Guided through reflection that evaluates intended and unintended outcomes of an experience, all with the purpose of applying new knowledge to new experience.

Benefits to an Organization or Company

• Offers a year-round source of highly motivated pre-professionals.
• Brings new and innovative ideas to an employer.
• Creates the opportunity to recruit future employees.
• Converts student interns to full-time employees who can be immediately productive.
• Strengthens the bond with the university and projects a favorable image in the community.
• Allows the employer the opportunity to have an impact on shaping the lives of students.

What is required from an organization or company?

• Create a Handshake account and post the experiential learning opportunity for student awareness.
• Sign the Internship Master Agreement, or an acceptable modification thereof designed to indemnify all parties involved in the internship process. (Experience Provider, University, and Student)
• Agree to provide a quality learning experience while helping the student achieve their learning objectives and experiential learning goals.
• Designate an employee to oversee the student’s work performance, and provide seasoned mentorship during the student’s experience.
• Provide evaluation and/or progress reports including attendance as well as qualitative assessments of the student’s learning.

The evaluation occasions may be twice during the semester or term, or a final evaluation. For more information, visit experience.byu.edu, email experience@byu.edu, or call 801-422-3337.

If you are interested in providing a project or capstone project, please visit our Partnering Hub.

BYU CONNECT
BYU’s Official Networking & Mentoring Platform

Connect with BYU alumni, students, and faculty.

Created with the purpose to facilitate professional mentoring and networking opportunities within the BYU community, BYU Connect allows students, alumni, friends of BYU, and employers to build and maintain relationships. As an employer, BYU Connect is a vital recruiting tool to connect with qualified BYU graduates.

Use BYU Connect to:

- Refer or post experienced (college graduate) jobs for BYU alumni on a job board.
- Mentor students worldwide with career decisions through virtual meetings.
- Create an employer group to post content, facilitate announcements, and send emails to students and alumni interested in your company.

TIPS FOR SUCCESS FOR EMPLOYER EVENTS

Before your event: Use the following questions in your planning.

• Purpose: What is the goal of your event? What students are you hoping to reach or connect with? What opportunities on the Menu of Services could you use to accomplish your purpose?

• People: Who on your team would be the best to talk to potential candidates? Is there value in using a recent intern or BYU alumni? Do you need to consider a diverse group to address a variety of questions?

• Promotion: What have you found successful for your group in outreaching candidates? Have you been using all the resources offered by BYU CEL? Do you have an active social media account that would be useful in promotion? Have you advertised your event on Handshake two weeks in advance? Are the students aware of your event?

• Plan: Are you aware of the options available in hosting your event?
  - IN-PERSON: Best times for information sessions and events is 12 noon and after 5pm; best days are Tues, Weds, Thurs (any building outside of the Wilkinson Student Center); have some refreshments for the students to mingle and discuss more with the recruiter.
  - VIRTUAL: Do you have a platform your company uses such as Zoom or Google Hangout? Are you planning to attend the Handshake Virtual Fairs training? Has someone tested your system to check video and audio? Is everyone on your team aware of the process and set up for your event? Has everyone tested their lighting and environment? Is everyone on board with the suggested dress code for the event? How can you show your company culture in a virtual setting?

During your event: Here’s some tips we have from our own experience with events.

• Plan to have a backup person or two, ready to step in if there are any technical problems. This way the event can continue on and you will not lose your audience.

• Be prepared to present your company. Anticipate the questions students may ask about you or your organization. Be prepared with some questions to engage candidates. Candidates may not know where to start or when to join in.

• Have introductions ready for colleagues, if necessary.

• Remove all distractions so you are completely focused on the event and the attendees.

  “It would be nice if employers and companies provided more detailed information about the positions they have available.” - BYU Student, Career & Internship Fair Fall ’20

  “Have more information for us. Post your jobs that are available.” - BYU Student, STEM Fair: Math & Data, Fall ’20

After your event:

• Follow up with all who attended. Let them know you appreciated them attending and ask follow-up questions.

• Have a plan for any who missed the event. Reach out to them with a personalized email.

• Consider tracking those who applied from a specific event. This could be helpful in your reporting on a specific fair or event.

For questions about events, please contact our Events Manager, Beth Hiatt at beth_hiatt@byu.edu.

For questions about marketing your events, please contact our Director of Marketing & Communications, Meghann Larkin at meghann_larkin@byu.edu.
NEW TO BYU EMPLOYER PACKAGE
If your company or organization is just starting to build a relationship with BYU, we suggest the following options:

Handshake
Get started with Handshake here: handshake.byu.edu

Tabling
Set up an in-person or virtual booth for 2 to 4 hours and have students stop by and visit you to find out more about your company and ask questions.

Info Session
Host a complimentary information session in-person or virtually on Handshake.

Interviews
Let us help you arrange an interview with candidates of interest either in-person or via Handshake.

Fairs/Events
See our Recruiting Events Calendar to match your goals to the best event for your organization.

Distribution of Branded Marketing Material
Refer to our advertising webpage found here.

BYU FRIEND PACKAGE (PLUS ALL PREVIOUS OPTIONS)
If your company or organization is ready to increase your engagement with BYU, we suggest the following options:

Employer Panels
Join other experts in your field to talk to students about best practices for their future.

Career Trek
Take students on an in-person or virtual tour of your company and show them why they would love your industry or company.

Resume Reviews
Give back by helping to give industry-specific resume reviews to eager students.

BYU Connect
Start a group to continue your recruiting and networking efforts within the BYU community.

Get started by connecting with us: recruiting@byu.edu

Cougar Den Package (Plus All Previous Options)
If your company or organization is looking for more opportunities to connect with BYU, we suggest the following options:

Capstones
Sponsor a project and have students work on it for you. Reach anywhere from 3-8 students per project.

Alumni Day
Invite a BYU Alumnus/Alumna from your company to share what it is like to work for your company and why other BYU students should choose to work for your company.

Sponsorships
Be part of certain key committees or councils on-campus.

Get started by connecting with our Employer Engagement & Strategy Team, Marcia Bingham marcia_bingham@byu.edu or Scott Greenhalgh scott_greenhalgh@byu.edu.

Can I still recruit at Brigham Young University this semester?

Yes. Students are excited to connect with employers and are still looking for opportunities. There are 4 ways you can advertise your positions and connect with BYU students:

1. Post job or internship positions on BYU Handshake (under Post a Job) and if you haven’t already, make sure to complete your profile in order to attract more students.
2. Schedule an in-person or virtual event to connect with our students through Handshake (Under Event Request – Virtual) BYU Virtual.
3. Host in-person or virtual/phone interviews with students - You may schedule these on your own or through Handshake (under Request an Interview) BYU Virtual.
4. Connect with our Team - BYU Employer Chat to let us know about your needs and we can set-up a time to discuss how we can help develop a recruitment strategy that fits your needs.

What does Fall recruiting look like on your campus?

Recruiting at BYU for Fall semester will be a hybrid of in-person and virtual for both our Career Center and the Marriott School of Business.

• Information sessions and events will be a hybrid of in-person and virtual. Click here to set up.
• You can submit a request to interview our students in-person or virtually. Click here to set up virtual interviews.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What are some other ways of connecting with students?

• Capstone Projects – these are a great way to connect with our students and have them work on your projects. Contact William Tenney on our Recruiter Experience Team for more information.
• Clubs – CEL is now connected with clubs on campus.
• Career Directors – our Career Directors work directly with our students and can help you connect with them.
• Handshake – you can post a job, search students, and send targeted emails through our online job platform.

How can I connect with clubs?

Careers & Experiential Learning has now connected with certain clubs that you can also have access to. We can also set up events for you to connect with them. Please reach out to William Tenney on our Recruiter Experience Team for more information.

How can I connect with faculty members?

Our Career Directors are a great resource to connect with faculty members.

Can I present in classrooms?

Not typically. The professors need all the time they have for their curriculum. However, through virtual events, you can still reach students, and faculty members may choose to advertise in their classes.

How can BYU help me meet my requirements to recruit ethnic and gender diversity?

Refer to our website on Diversity and Belonging.

Will BYU still hold on-campus interviews?

All of BYU’s Fall 2020 recruiting will be a hybrid of virtual and in-person, which includes interviews.

Mission Statement
We strive to model the attributes of Jesus Christ, the Master Teacher, as we prepare professionals who educate with an eternal perspective.
Who We Are
Students in the College of Family, Home, and Social Sciences study individual behavior, family life, and human society from a diverse but complementary set of perspectives. Our students creatively engage with social issues using a variety methodologies, critical thinking, and empirical research to produce solutions as they navigate the human experience.

Our Departments
Anthropology • Geography • Economics • Family Life • History • Political Science • Psychology • Social Work • Sociology

Mentored Research
Our students work with professors to effectively collect and interpret data to solve real-world problems and regularly present and publish research.
• An average of 400 students present research posters each year.
• BYU graduates have outsized success completing doctoral programs in Psychology and Economics.

Internships
Students learn how to apply classroom concepts as they gain professional experience.
• The BYU Barlow Center in Washington D.C. houses 50 Washington Seminar interns each semester.
• Psychology and Social Work students gain critical training hours through a variety of internship options.

Field Study
Whether excavating ruins or studying events on location, students learn more with field experiences.
• The Civil Rights Seminar highlights how different ethnic groups struggle for freedom.
• The Petra Field School is one way to study civilizations, past and present.
Our Mission
To teach the disciplines of art, communications, dance, design, music and theatre and media arts; explore these disciplines’ application to various media; and expand their positive influence on the human spirit. The college’s activities are founded on spiritual values. Each department strives for excellence and rigor in scholarship, performance and creative activity. The college seeks a balance among these areas of endeavor that offers students a diverse education in preparation for professional contributions and a lifetime of service to humankind.

COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES

What we do
As technology advances, liberal arts students are becoming the future of the work force.

College of Humanities graduates are able to contribute innovative ideas to nearly any organization or industry. Our students acquire a global worldview from their experiences visiting foreign countries and studying their languages and cultures. The skills that humanities students take with them into their careers make them empathetic leaders, creative idea generators, and valuable change makers.

 BYU LAW
Our Mission
The mission of the College of Life Sciences is to support all students and faculty in their pursuit of knowledge using scientific, analytical, academic, and divine means in an environment where all feel safe, accepted, and an important part of the college ecosystem. We believe the earnest pursuit of this college mission will help to support the mission and aims of Brigham Young University. It is our desire that our students will develop the “faith, intellect, and character” to succeed in their temporal, spiritual, and eternal goals.

“When you’re doing your research, you know more about something than anyone else in the world. I feel like each of my research projects has helped me become a better scientist.”

Our Mission

To learn the Healer’s art and go forth to serve.

The College of Nursing at Brigham Young University educates students who are among the highest academically-qualified in the country. As a vital part of their preparation, students engage in unique simulation lab learning and have clinical practice at more than 250 clinical sites in the Mountain West and beyond. They obtain cultural understanding and diversity in a variety of local and international areas including Ecuador, Czech Republic, Fiji, Ghana, Spain, and Tonga.

“I come from a humble home that has made many sacrifices to allow me to be here in the United States to study. I wanted to become a nurse because I have found it to be the best way to fulfill my calling to serve. When I see my patients’ faces as I help them in their times of need, I find that I am making meaningful contributions to the world. Being a nurse is one of the most selfless choices one can make. I am honored to be part of a program that focuses on serving others and allows me to have the tools to do it.”
