

Statistics Student

linkedin.com/in/stat-student | 123-456-7890 | statstudent@gmail.com

Education

Bachelor of Science in Statistics: Statistical Science

Brigham Young University

Completed Mathematics Minor

- GPA: 3.76
- Relevant Courses: Regression, Applied R Programming, Advanced Excel, Theory of Interest, Statistical Inference and Probability, Introduction to Computer Science, and Introduction to Information Systems
- Member of the BYU Actuarial Club
- Presented research at the BYU Student Research Conference

April 2020

Provo, UT

Skills

- Proficient in R, Excel, and C++
- Intermediate with SAS, SQL, VBA, Tableau, database design, Access, HTML, and CSS
- Trained in performing regression, time-series, random-trees, and Monte Carlo Estimates
- Fluent in Spanish (reading, writing, and speaking)

Projects/Awards

- Participated in a CAS sponsored case competition at ASU regarding hurricane modeling
- Utilized Excel and Tableau to make models, calculations, and predictions that were then presented and judged by a panel of local actuaries
- Led team as captain to become the Excel and Data Visualization Case Competition Winners

Experience

Social Innovation Project Intern

Brigham Young University and iDE

- Collaborate directly with partner organization, iDE, to present innovative ideas and recommendations that can be implemented to receive unrestricted funding
- Analyze financial reports and research communications and organizational structures of similar NGOs
- Review partner's needs with as a team to ensure partner satisfaction

January 2018–Present

Provo, UT

Teacher Assistant

Brigham Young University

- Monitored the overall performance of students through discussing their concerns
- Mentored 115 students in understanding complex statistical concepts by tailoring teaching
- Inspected students' work with quality and quick feedback while working on several tasks

April 2018–December 2018

Provo, UT

Assistant Running Coach

Second Wind Running

- Coached the techniques and training required for 30 runners to perform competitively
- Qualified 7 individual runners to run at the National Jr. Olympics Cross Country Championship

February 2018–December 2018

Provo, UT

Lead Custodian

Brigham Young University

- Directed teams and organized efforts through prioritizing multiple tasks in a time effective manner
- Enhanced the standard of cleanliness to ensure client satisfaction

August 2016–August 2018

Provo, UT

Volunteer Representative

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

- Directed groups of 6-20 individuals in their efforts to promote the organization and its values
- Attained the second highest productive zone in the whole region

July 2014–July 2016

Coahuila, Mexico